Exam Rules

1. The exam will begin on Friday December 8, 2023 no earlier than 9:00 AM ET.
2. You must not discuss the exam with anyone. If you become aware any cheating then you are obligated to report it to the instructor, even after the exam. You must destroy and not share any downloaded copy of the exam after the exam time.
Failure to abide by this rule constitutes a departure from academic integrity, which may result in serious consequences. Show some maturity in this regard, please.
3. Once you have started the exam, you may work on the exam as much as you like until it is due. Sleep is important, so be reasonable. Read the questions carefully.
4. You must submit your solutions via onQ. Although typed submissions are nice, neatly written solutions are also fine. Illegible solutions will not be graded.
5. To be fair to all, the instructor will not answer questions about the exam or course material during the exam period. If you believe that there is an error in the exam, explain why in your solutions and make an assumption that allows you to continue with the exam problems. State your assumptions clearly in your submission.
6. The completed exam must be uploaded to onQ no later than 9:00 AM ET on Saturday December 9, 2023. Late exams will receive a 25 % penalty per hour.
7. Any violation of these rules will be viewed as a departure from academic integrity.
